280 MEN IN POLICE NET. Spectacular Gambiling Raids in New York.

New York, Oct. 3; Two speciacular raids of alleged post rooms were made Thursday by the police at different places on the East oute of the city. In the appregate 280 prisoners were tak en, and in addition, it is said tout a considerable quantity of garabling para phernalia was confiscated. So great was the haul that there were not sufficient cells at police headquarters to accommodate the prisoners, and it was necessary to distribute them among five other police stations. In preparing for the raids which were made at ng for the raids, which were made he instance of Deputy Police Commit ioner Bugnere and over the heads of inspector and captains of the precinct, extraordinary precautions were taken to make it successful. The raiders were all picked men from various stations in Manhattan and Brooklyn,

A contingent from the traffic squad was also pressed into service. He fell under the wheels and lost both legs. The railroad company paid him $100, which it maintained was a present, pure and simple, as it disclaimed any responsibility for the accident, and obtained the signature of the injured man to a release in which such a declaration was made, A suit was brought in which it was c'aimed that this release was obtained through fraud, in which the plaintiff Then a second suit was brought for damages on the merits of the case, and the jury again found for the jured man, bring a verdict for Vail ancourt to recover $8,000.

Dedication at Kern Hattin. About three hundred people gathered at Kurn Hattin, Westminster, Tuesday afternoon to attend the dedication of the Dickinson school building and the laying of the corner stone of the new administration building which is in process of erection to replace the one destroyed by fire February 28.

This building is on the old site and conforms somewhat in outward appearance to the one destroyed, but the arrangement of the rooms within will be entirely different. It will contain par lor, reception room, reading room, dining room, serving room, pantry, and kitchen on the ground floor, with dornitory, helpers' roome, guest rooms, and hospital suite in the floors above.
